Interacting with in-game characters where users must use clues to determine if chatting with those characters is safe or not. These characters will do things like try to bait users with the promise of free in-game money (ROBUX), or trick them into getting account information;

“We’ve used the ROBLOX curriculum with my students well before distance learning was required and have seen first-hand how they benefit from combining learning and play on their favorite platform. While they learn game design and coding, they also acquire valuable social skills and create long-lasting friendships,” said Bianca Rivera, Librarian at Ruth C. Kinney Elementary in New York. “Now more than ever, it’s important for these kids to feel connected to their peers, and ROBLOX’s offerings facilitate that.”
