SAN MATEO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--ROBLOX, a global online platform bringing more than 150 million people together through play, announced today the launch of its free curriculum on Digital Civility to foster positive, safe, and productive online experiences and discussions among students. The curriculum also includes a new ROBLOX game called Digital Safety Scavenger Hunt, which teaches users how to spot unreliable information and stay safe online. Both resources are designed to be used in conjunction and are meant to engage kids and teens who are going back to online learning this fall.

There is a game called 'Build It, Play It The Island Of Move' and this code will provide you with something called a Hustle Hat. However, you do have to make some new animations for the game, which isn't something everyone knows how to do. You will be rewarded with this badge for entering this code and it is something you can show off to all of your friends the next time you play together.

34402 404: The player will be given a secret note upon inputting this code.

ROBLOX's mission is to bring the world together through play. Every month, more than 150 million people around the world have fun with friends as they explore millions of immersive digital experiences. All of these experiences are built by the ROBLOX community, made up of over two million creators. We believe in building a safe, civil, and diverse community—one that inspires and fosters creativity and positive relationships between people around the world.
